

Austria meets Australia

Veronika Busch, a young Native Australian came to our school and showed us some beautiful pictures about the far away continent Australia.

She talked about her youth and school education in Australia, culture, why she came to Austria, animals, sights and she told us interesting facts.

The children liked listening to her very much and they could try typical Australian dishes. Some of them wanted to get more information and asked detailed questions.